2 SEC. 101. STREAMLINING AND SYNCHRONIZING THE REQUIREMENTS DEVELOPMENT AND APPROVAL PROCESS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AND MILITARY DEPARTMENTS.

(a) In General.—For the purpose of making recommendations for streamlining the process for developing and approving requirements for acquisition programs of the Department of Defense and each military department, the following individuals shall conduct assessments:
(1) The Secretary of Defense (or a designee of the Secretary).

(2) The Director for the extramural acquisition innovation and research activities required under section 2361a of title 10, United States Code (as added by section 835(a)(1) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2020 (Public Law 116–92; 133 Stat. 1494)).

(b) ASSESSMENT ELEMENTS.—Each assessment conducted pursuant to subsection (a) shall include an assessment of the requirements development and approval process in each of the following areas:

(1) Adherence of the current processes to statute, regulations, policies, and directives.

(2) Efficiency, effectiveness, and rigor of the current process.

(3) Standardization of processes across the military departments.

(4) Ability of the current process to react to urgent needs of the warfighter.

(5) Ability of changes in requirements for programs of record to be reviewed.

(6) Technical feasibility of each approved requirement.
(7) Validation of decisions made from the current process and the alignment of each such decision to the national defense strategy required under section 113(g) of title 10, United States Code.

(8) Use of portfolio management in the process to coordinate decisions and avoid any duplication of requirements across the military departments.

(9) Training and development of the workforce in requirements development and evaluation.

(10) Implementation of recommendations on the process from the Comptroller General of the United States by the Department of Defense and each military department.

(11) Identification and comparison of best practices in the private sector and the public sector for the requirements development and approval process.

(12) A comprehensive and detailed analysis of the amount of time from the date on which a requirement is proposed (at any level) to the date of final approval of the requirement.

(c) REPORT.—

(1) SECRETARY OF DEFENSE.—Not later than February 15, 2021, the Secretary of Defense shall submit to the congressional defense committees a report on the assessment conducted pursuant to subsection (a)(1), which shall include—

(A) a description and the results of such assessment, including the analysis of the time required for approval of requirements under subsection (b)(12);

(B) a plan to reduce of the amount of time
from the date on which the requirement is proposed at any level to the date of final approval of the requirement to less than one year;

(C) recommendations for changes to legislation, regulations, or policies for each of the assessment elements in subsection (b); and

(D) such additional recommendations for legislation, regulations, or policies as the Secretary considers appropriate.

(2) DIRECTOR.—

(A) To SECRETARY.—Not later than August 31, 2021, the Director for the extramural acquisition innovation and research activities shall submit to the Secretary of Defense a report on the assessment conducted pursuant to subsection (a)(2), including the analysis of the time required for approval of requirements under subsection (b)(12).
(B) To Congress.—Not later than September 30, 2021, the Secretary of Defense shall submit to the congressional defense committees the report described in subparagraph (A) together with such comments as the Secretary determines appropriate, which shall include—

(i) a description and the results of the assessment conducted pursuant to subsection (a)(2);

(ii) recommendations on how the Department of Defense can reduce the amount of time from the date on which a requirement is proposed (at any level) to the date of final approval of the requirement; and

(iii) such additional recommendations for legislation, regulations, or policies as the Secretary considers appropriate.

SEC. 102. DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE WEAPON SYSTEM SUSTAINMENT STRATEGY.
